LIN 3042 · Applied Linguistics · Fall 2026

Schedule & Readings

Reproduced from the syllabus, Topical Outline / Course Schedule. Textbook: O'Grady, Archibald, Aronoff & Rees-Miller (eds.), Contemporary Linguistics, 7th ed.; page numbers refer to that text.

HOW TO READ THIS OUTLINE

- Each week has two sessions (Tue/Thu). Readings are for a session; take-home assignments are from a session and due about two weeks later; quizzes are during a session. Exact due dates are announced in class / on Canvas – the timeline below is approximate.
- Every session includes a short in-class assignment (completion-graded), except on quiz days. Week 15 is reserved for presentations; those sessions include a short in-class assignment too. In-class assignments are not listed session by session below.
- Sessions marked "NUA" do not permit unexcused absences (see the Attendance policy below).
- Assessments this term: 26 in-class assignments, 8 take-home assignments (THA1–THA8), 3 quizzes, the Article Summary & Critique, and the Article Presentation. There is no final exam.
